

On line resources:

Vision Aware www.visionaware.org Resources for Independent Living with Vision Loss - this site offers information regarding eye conditions, self study courses for individuals and family members or friends, and a directory of state offices for people who are blind or have a visual impairment.

The National Council of State Agencies for the Blind www.ncsab.org A national directory of state agencies that provide services to individuals who are blind.

The National Federation of the Blind www.nfb.org Resources for the blind: Services, technology news, visual aids and research information.

The Hadley School for the Blind www.hadley.edu Nonprofit international distance education school. Ninety tuition-free courses for blind adults and family members of blind children and adults. Also offers courses for professionals working with individuals with vision loss.

The American Foundation for the Blind www.afb.org Nonprofit organization provides information and referrals about living with visual impairment.

NoIR Technology www.noir-medical.com NoIR offers sunglasses and low vision eyewear for the visually-impaired to maximize functional vision, increase mobility, enhance contrast and provide relief from glare.